Sample roles and responsibilities on PSEA within an organization[1]

Note: Organizations are strongly encouraged to integrate PSEA-related roles and responsibilities into their personnel's existing terms of references, particularly if their involvement is more substantial (e.g. PSEA focal point).

Personnel	Sample roles and responsibilities
Management	• Provide oversight of PSEA prevention and response • Review and update PSEA-related policies and guidance • Ensure attention and resources to PSEA across the organization • Facilitate and oversee investigations of SEA allegations • Coordinate with other organizations on PSEA, including donors • Promoting a safe and inclusive organizational culture and office environment that prevent sexual exploitation and sexual abuse where staff feel empowered to speak up, and support and develop systems that maintain this environment • Ensure that a victim-centred approach guides all actions for PSEA
PSEA Point focal (in coordination with gender/GBV/CP personnel where available)	• Support senior management to meet their PSEA-related responsibilities • Report concerns or issues with PSEA implementation to senior management; including referrals of victims/survivors to assistance and services. • Receive reports of SEA allegations and coordinate the response • Conduct training and awareness-raising of personnel and others on PSEA • Coordinate with other relevant actors on PSEA, and representing the organization in inter-agency PSEA Network • Ensure information about PSEA is communicated to the community, including sharing details on the complaint mechanism and referral pathway and service providers
Human resources	• Conduct screening for past SEA violations, and other code of conduct and policy violations (e.g. fraud, corruption, abuse of power), as part of recruitment process • Ensure all personnel sign the organization's code of conduct • Integrate a PSEA clause in contract agreements, including when subcontracting • Support communication with personnel during investigation of SEA allegations • Keep PSEA-related documents of personnel on file, including signed codes of conduct
